The Times-Dispatch Want Ad. Puzzle.

This is a back view of a long-headed manager of a Times-Dispatch Want Ad. Branch Office. You have seen the back of his head hundreds of times, but do you know it? If so, send your answer to the Want Ad. Puzzle Department of the Times-Dispatch and get a prize. You must spell the name of the owner of the head with the letters making his name, which are scattered through the want ads. In a number of these little want ads, will be found an extra capital letter, thus: H. O. L. J. D. Cut out the ads, spell containing these extra letters, place them in the proper order, and they will contain the name of the gentleman whose picture we give above.

HOW TO ARRANGE THE PUZZLE.

Cut out the advertisements containing the extra capital letters and paste them on the same sheet with the picture in the order in which they come with the name is spelled correctly; then mail your answer care of Want Ad. Puzzle Department, The Times-Dispatch, Richmond, Va.

THE PRIZES.

For the correct solution of this puzzle three prizes will be given this week. The First Prize will be two tickets to the Academy of Music Friday night for "The Professor's Love Story."

The Second Prize will be two tickets for Wednesday night for the performance of "The Amerca" at the Bijou Theatre.

The Third Prize will be two Saturday matinee tickets to the Bijou.

METHOD OF AWARDING PRIZES.

If more than three correct answers are received they will be placed in a basket and three of them drawn by a disinterested party. The first one to come out will receive the first prize, the second one out the second prize, and the third one out the third prize. If there are not as many as three correct answers, or no correct answers, the prizes will be awarded to the nearest correct answers in the order of their correctness.

THE CONTEST WILL CLOSE.
